Rescue Squad Urges Regulations at Dam

The Marshall County Emergency Unit Rescue Squad last Thursday night, Sept. 4, passed the following resolution regarding fishing and boating below the dam at Gilbertsville:

RESOLUTION
Whereas, the Marshall County Emergency Unit, organized five years ago for the purpose of forming a group of trained men and providing them with the necessary equipment to carry out safety programs, rescue and disaster work in times of accident or other need in Marshall County, including the recreational and industrial areas of said county, and

Whereas, said emergency unit is now composed of 30 volunteer members, citizens of Marshall County, trained in first-aid and rescue work, who are available at any hour of the day or night, and has been called upon for services many times in the area of and upon Kentucky Lake as a result of numerous drownings and other accidents, and

Whereas, the unrestricted use of the waters immediately below and above the Kentucky Dam by fishermen in small boats, has resulted in the death by drowning of 13 people since the dam was completed, due largely to the force of the water going through the spillway gates, such areas constitute a most dangerous and hazardous menace to the welfare and safety of all persons who may have a desire to or attempt to fish near the Dam so long as said areas remain unrestricted and unmarked, and

Whereas, the Marshall County Emergency Unit is desirous that immediate action be taken to life a result of drownings in the areas immediately below and above the Kentucky Dam.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, by the Marshall County Emergency Unit through its Board of Directors in meeting duly assembled at Benton, Kentucky, that the Commonwealth of Kentucky by and through its Fish and Wildlife Commission issue an immediate ruling or regulation making it unlawful for anyone to fish from a boat, or to operate or propel a boat of any size or type anywhere within 500 feet on either side of the Kentucky Dam on the Tennessee River, that said Kentucky Fish and Wildlife Commission in cooperation with the Tennessee Valley Authority, the Kentucky Department of Public Safety, and Division of State Parks, take such steps as are necessary to erect markers to warn the public and all fishermen of the unrestricted areas below and above the said Kentucky Dam; that all of the law enforcement agencies of both the State of Kentucky and the Federal Government be utilized to enforce such restrictions and regulations.

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be mailed immediately to the Kentucky Fish and Wildlife Commission, Department of Public Safety, and Division of State Parks, Frankfort, Kentucky, and to Tennessee Valley Authority at Knoxville, Tennessee.

The foregoing resolution being submitted upon a voice vote was approved unanimously by the entire Board of Directors. This the 4th day of September, 1958, at Benton, Kentucky. Marshall County Emergency Unit.

"My tobacco is in the barn... and it's protected by FARM BUREAU"

I'm taking no chances with my tobacco crop this year while it's in the barn. I've just taken out a FARM BUREAU fire and extended coverage policy that gives me full protection at a very small cost. If you don't have this type of protection, I'd suggest you see your local Farm Bureau agent right away.

September To Be Cool, Forecast Says

The Weather Bureau's 10-day outlook for September calls for temperatures to average below seasonal normals in the Great Lakes region and also in the middle and lower Mississippi Valley.

Above normal temperatures are predicted from the southern and central plains westward to the Pacific Coast, with warmest temperatures in the Southwest. In the remainder of the country, temperatures should average near normal.

Rainfall is expected to exceed normal in the Great Lakes region and in the southeast. Subnormal amounts are anticipated in the western half of the nation except near normal in the Pacific Northwest. In areas not indicated, average amounts are indicated.

from discomforts or monthly pain and change-of-life.

20 YEARS AGO

From The Courier
Files of 1938-39

Twenty years ago, a Benton food store was advertising popular brand cigarettes at 10 and 14 cents a package.

Three pounds of coffee was only 39 cents. And T-bone steaks were 40 cents a pound.

(If we could take our present day pay check and buy groceries at 20-years-ago prices, we might save a little money each week.)

Keen Johnson had won the Democratic nomination for governor of Kentucky in a race with John Young Brown, and Albert (Pont) Nelson of Benton had lost his race to Robert Webb of Mayfield.

A big auction sale of land owned by J. R. Brandon had just been held. The land was located just south of the Benton city limits and was sold for building lots.

The Farm Bureau had held its annual picnic. Boone Hill was master of ceremonies.

Games and contests were in charge of R. R. Roberts, G. T. Fiser, Joe Pugh, Jack Gatlin, Van Roberts and Miss Helen Stone.

A Benton City Council election had been held, and Jim Ed Cross had been chosen as a new member of the Council. Five old members had been elected. They were Thompson, Smith, Smith, Phillips, Boyd and Peel.

A new business had been opened in Benton. It was Kintner's Grocery. The store was located across the street from Brandon's Grocery.

And another business was being remodeled. It was the Crawford-Ferguson Co., which was undergoing extensive repairs and decorations.

Benton's baseball team, managed by Dewey Jackson, was all set to tie into Gilbertsville after squeezing out a 4 to 3 victory over Hazel.

A group of Marshall County 4-H members had attended a dairy cattle judging school held in Graves County. They were J. M. Henson, Tom Padgett, Joe Bill Egner and Robert Earl Powell.

There had been several deaths. Miss Lorene Chester, 25, had died of a heart attack at her home in the New Liberty community.

Mrs. Julia Chamber, 70, had died of cancer at her home on Route 6.

Mrs. J. A. Niles, 76, had died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hayes Dyke, on Benton Route 7.

And that's all the old-time news for this week. See you next week.

Personal...

(Left From Last Week)
Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Baker have moved to Paducah. She will be employed at the Citizens Savings Bank and he will attend Draughton's Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reid and Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman and daughters, Susan and Karen, have returned home to Detroit, Mich., after a week's vacation with Mrs. Reid's sisters, Mrs. Newt Tynes, Mrs. Hattie Parker, and Mrs. Clay Nelson.

Mrs. W. I. Harper and granddaughter, Judy Harper, who had been visiting in Benton with her grandmother, went by plane from Paducah to St. Louis last week. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harper where Mrs. W. I. Harper visited while there.

Mrs. Sella Foust has returned from Burkesville, Ky., where she visited her daughter and family, Kate Moore.

Mrs. Mary Rudolph was returned from the Baptist Hospital in Paducah to her home in Benton Friday of the past week.

Jr. Women Hear Reports at Opening Session of the Year

The Benton Junior Woman's Club had their first meeting of the year on Thursday, Sept. 4, at 7:30 at the Community Building.

Mrs. Joe Brooks Prince read the minutes of the last meeting, which was the installation of new officers at Kentucky Dam Dining Room.

Mrs. Coy Creason gave the financial report. Mrs. James Holland lead the discussion on the dental clinic which the Juniors are sponsoring again for the third year. The club voted on buying toothbrushes for the children who attend the clinic.

Mrs. E. J. Conrad, chairman of the fair committee, reported on the Junior Woman's Club booth at the fair.

Mrs. Gene Phillips introduced the international relations project for the coming year. To carry out this project, each club member will write to one Junior Club member in Japan.

Mrs. T. F. LeVan submitted the proposed budget for 1958-59. The budget was voted on and accepted.

The club discussed the hayride it will have on Saturday, Sept. 30.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. T. F. LeVan to the following members.

Mrs. Price Napier, Mrs. Coy Creason, Mrs. Harold King, Mrs. Bill Green, Mrs. Charles Lents, Mrs. Gene Phillips, Mrs. Bud Platt, Mrs. Bobby Putteet, Mrs. Joe Wayne Mathis, Mrs. Carl O'Daniel, Mrs. James Earl Wyatt, Mrs. Jim Owens, Mrs. Dale Morgan, Mrs. James Holland, Mrs. E.
